

Referral for Clinical Evaluation of Venous Insufficiency

Early treatment minimizes progression and complications of vein disease

Treatments - Radiofrequency Ablation, Endovenous Laser Ablation, Ambulatory Phlebectomy, Sclerotherapy

Our initial Consultation includes a venous duplex ultrasound and comprehensive evaluation by one of our board certified Vein Specialists:

James Choi, MD

Alfred Gladstone, MD

Wanda Kirejczyk, MD

Jeffrey Takahashi, MD

Medical Director

Below are CEAP Classifications of Chronic Venous Disease

Use of this classification system improves the accuracy of the diagnosis as well as communication between specialists, referring doctors, and their patients.

☐ CEAP 1:
Spiders or
Reticular Veins

☐ CEAP 2:
Varicose Veins

☐ CEAP 3:
Edema

☐ CEAP 4:
Skin changes-
Eczema
Pigmentation

☐ CEAP 5:
Healed Venous
Ulcer

☐ CEAP 6:
Active Venous
Ulceration

Does your patient experience any of the following symptoms in their legs?

- | | |
|--|--|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Aching/Pain | <input type="checkbox"/> Itching/Burning |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Tiredness/Fatigue | <input type="checkbox"/> Heaviness |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Swollen Ankles | <input type="checkbox"/> Throbbing |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Restless Legs | <input type="checkbox"/> Leg Cramps |

Refer your patient to the Vein Centers of Connecticut

Venous insufficiency is treatable through minimally invasive, in-office procedures covered by most insurance companies.

Patient Name _____

Patient DOB _____

Patient Phone _____

Referring Provider _____